4. Matters Arising

Item 5. Chairs in the Dining Hall

Following further consultation the JCR and MCR have agreed to the replacement of the benches in Hall in favour of the chairs. The concern about the loss of capacity had proven to be unfounded. It was therefore agreed to proceed with the replacing of the benches with chairs in the Dining Hall.

5. Principal's Report

The Principal has received an email from Dame Bridget Ogilvie, who is currently in Australia, to say that she was deeply touched and flattered to receive the Principal's letter offering her an Honorary Fellowship and was happy to accept the invitation. A formal acceptance was on its way.

6. Bursar's Report

New bike racks would be installed and the potholes in the entrance dealt with over Easter. The company that was replacing the down pipes would also be repairing the broken paving slabs. Staffing in Accounts: D. Oliver has returned, however there were still two staff absences. Temporary staffing is now in place and it was hoped that service would return to normal as soon as possible.
