

MANSFIELD COLLEGE, OXFORD

APPLICATION FORM 2010 - 2011

VISITING STUDENT PROGRAMME STUDY PROGRAMME

Please read carefully the information provided concerning your choice of tutorial subjects. If necessary consult your Study Abroad Adviser, Department Chair, or other appropriate person. Remember that if you intend to take courses at Oxford for credit at your home institution, you may need to obtain prior approval. Responsibility for doing so rests with you.

You should list two subjects for each of the terms that you will be in Oxford, designating one as a primary and one as a secondary tutorial. Please provide one alternative choice for each tutorial and indicate whether, if necessary, it will be possible for you to take the subjects in a different term from that which you have chosen. If the tutorial must cover certain specific topics (e.g. to match a course at your home institution, so that you may obtain credit) please provide full details. If necessary continue onto a further sheet.

A wide variety of courses is available at Oxford. More information about them can be found on Mansfield's and the university's websites (www.mansfield.ox.ac.uk/prospective/studying/visiting-student-programme/subjects.html; www.ox.ac.uk: follow the link to 'Divisions and Departments') or in the publication University of Oxford Examination Regulations, which your Study Abroad Office may own. Although provision of tuition in a particular subject cannot be guaranteed, every effort will be made to match your tutorial requests. Economics teaching is organised centrally through the Economics Department and so restrictions apply to the courses available. The following fourteen options are currently available and should be taken as primary tutorials: British Economic History Since 1870; Classical Economic Thought; Command and Transitional Economies; Comparative Demographic Systems; Economic Decisions within the Firm; Economic Theory; Economics of Developing Countries; Economics of Industry; Economics of OECD Countries; Finance; International Economics; Labour Economics; Money and Banking; Public Economics. Please contact the VSP Director if you need more information about this.

If you have any questions prior to filling in this form, please contact the Director of the Visiting Student Programme at Mansfield College (tel +44 1865 270995; email carolyn.morningstar@mansfield.ox.ac.uk). If your requests present any difficulties, you can expect to be contacted prior to your arrival in Oxford. If, for whatever reason, you find it necessary to change the choices outlined on this form, you must advise Mansfield College IMMEDIATELY.
