Chapel Choir and Music
While Chapel services are online this term, the choir will still sing together for services. We also look forward to receiving musical contributions from members of Mansfield - please do get in touch if you would like to contribute.

Getting Involved in Chapel
Mansfield College Chapel is an inclusive space where everyone is welcome and all are celebrated and affirmed. Students and staff are encouraged to participate in all aspects of worship which is always ecumenical in its nature. If you are interested in reading or leading prayers, please contact the Chaplain.

Cause for Pause Mondays at 8.30pm
A 20 minute Zoom meeting offering a space for contemplation and reflection, connecting through words and music from across cultures and faith traditions and also through shared silence. Nothing is expected of attendees, but they are welcome to bring music or words to share. Everyone is invited to come together to just 'be' in this shared space.

Chaplain
Rev’d Sarah Farrow can be contacted at chaplain@mansfield.ox.ac.uk
Mansfield College has its roots in the Nonconformist tradition of the Church. The chaplaincy continues in that tradition, challenging and responding to the needs of the community in which it lives.

The Revd Sarah Farrow is the College Chaplain and is part of the welfare team. Sarah supports and serves the whole community of the College. Whether in consideration of relationships, work or study difficulties, spiritual or vocational issues, or for casual discussion, the chaplain is available to speak with staff and students at any time, no matter their faith or philosophy.

Please contact Sarah to arrange a time to speak.

Chaplaincy also holds special discussion groups such as: Queer Spirituality and Table Talks on Social Justice issues. Details of these meetings can be found in the Virtual Quad.
