About Mansfield College

Mansfield College is one of the 39 constituent colleges of the University of Oxford. It has around 55 academic staff, 255 undergraduates, 220 graduates and 42 visiting students. This relatively small size engenders friendly and close relationships not only among students and tutors, but across the whole community at the College.

Throughout its history, Mansfield has worked hard to make an Oxford education available to previously excluded groups, most recently in its successful access initiatives, promoting application from students from the state sector, and from backgrounds of educational and financial disadvantage. It is currently the Oxford College with the most diverse undergraduate body and has the highest proportion of state sector students. The current Principal is Helen Mountfield KC.

The College is also home to the Bonavero Institute of Human Rights, within Oxford University's Law Faculty, which was opened by the late Secretary-General of the United Nations, Kofi Annan, in 2018.

In 2021, Mansfield was recognised as a university College of Sanctuary by the UK charity City of Sanctuary, after demonstrating an ongoing commitment to nurturing a culture of inclusivity and awareness on campus for those seeking sanctuary (which includes refugees and asylum seekers), as well as in the wider community.
